Not Hentai!

There are only 4 images, of which there are three variations of one image and a stupid huge number of repeats of the exact same second image. Even at the highest resolution it is like playing an old Dos VGA game.

The puzzles are trivial to solve taking me less than 10 min to solve all of them. The background music is like listening to a geocities web page that loads a crappy midi track.

I love Henti, and this is not Henti.
